Subject: Re: CFTC v. McDonnell -- Transcript

Hi David,

As to not waste the Court's time tomorrow or expense and time of others involved Defendant is gracefully withdrawing his defense if those are the correct words. Defendant can no longer bear the stress of this entire proceeding it is unbearable across the board. Defendant will not be appearing this point forward asking that you notify all parties involved of this decision promptly. Defendant understands the process will continue with remedy, yet, after today's hearing to go any further is not a viable option as my voice has gone unheard for 6 months thus far to no resolve. I continue to declare my argument and innocence in heart and mind but cannot stand the burden, again, respectfully withdrawing my defense.

Regards,

Patrick K. McDonnell
